3. The undersigned hereby further agrees to abide by the "Terms of Adoption" listed below:
  - A. If for any reason, the adoption is not satisfactory to the adoption party, or if the Adopter(s) fails to comply with all terms and conditions of the Agreement, or if any misrepresentations have been made by the Adopter(s) to H.O.P.E. during the entire lifetime of the adopted animal, the Rescue animal must be returned to H.O.P.E. Any costs incurred during the return will be the responsibility of the Adopter(s). There will be no refund of the adoption payment. Terms are as follows:
    - i. The Rescue animal must be returned to H.O.P.E. if the Adopter(s) are unable to keep the Rescue animal. H.O.P.E. requires a minimum of five (5) days notice before returning an Adopted animal. Adopter(s) agree that they take full responsibility for said animal during this period.
    - ii. In the event that the Rescue animal is lost or stolen, every effort must be made by the Adopter(s) to locate and recover the Rescue animal. H.O.P.E. must be notified verbally within 24 hours, and in writing within five (5) business days, of the loss of the Rescue animal. Notification must include the date and exact location of the loss of the Rescue animal.
    - iii. The Rescue animal must never be abandoned or taken to a pound, shelter or humane society for any reason whatsoever by the Adopter(s), nor shall the Adopter(s) contact animal control or any other law enforcement agency or individual for that purpose, except upon written approval by a H.O.P.E. Board Member. The Rescue animal must be returned to H.O.P.E.

    - vii. The Rescue animal must receive an appropriate amount of quality food, fresh water, companionship and a safe shelter.

- viii. The Rescue animal must be kept as a family pet and treated with affection and kindness and not subject to cruelty.
- ix. Adopter(s) agree that if the Rescue animal is a cat, the Rescue animal is never to be declawed and may not be allowed outdoors.
- x. Adopter(s) agree that if the Rescue animal is a dog, the Rescue animal is never to have their ears cropped or tail docked.
- xi. Adopter(s) will release accurate name(s) and contact information of any veterinarian, trainer, groomer, boarder, animal control officer, or any other service provider who has had any interaction with the Rescue animal and/or any animal in the Adopter(s) custody to H.O.P.E. at any time during the Rescue animals life-time, within 24 hours of the verbal request of any H.O.P.E. representative, and five (5) business days of the written request of any H.O.P.E. representative.

Adopter(s) explicitly authorize, without further notice, the release of any information regarding the treatment, training, or other interaction of the Rescue animal and/or any animal in the Adopter(s) custody by or with any veterinarian, trainer, groomer, animal control officer or any other service provider.

Adopter(s) fully and forever release any such veterinarian, trainer, groomer, boarder, animal control officer, or any other service provider, their heirs, administrators, executors, successors and assigns, for any liability associated with the release of information to H.O.P.E. regarding the Rescue animal and/or any animal in the Adopter(s) custody.

Adopter(s) understands that partial, complete, or attempted revocation of said authorizations and/or release of liability shall constitute an immediate breach of this agreement.

- B. The Adopter(s) agree that follow-up visits by H.O.P.E. may be arranged at any time during the Rescue animal's lifetime, and H.O.P.E. reserves the right to inspect the animal's home.
